IN SUPPORT OF BATTERED WOMEN'S SUPPORT SERVICES

WHY WE GATHER

According to Dr. Kim Stanton's Report, nearly half (48%) of women over the age of 15 in British Columbia have experienced intimate partner violence.

In January 2025, the provincial government declared gender-based violence a national epidemic.

This is an emergency — and together with you, we are taking action.

Through our #DesignedWithSurvivors initiative, BWSS is building a real-time, community-rooted framework for public safety, centering survivors, training first responders, supporting court navigation, and strengthening cross-sector collaboration. This work is urgent, and it needs all of us.
